Yin Chiao Plus

A traditional Chinese Liquid Herbal Formula, traditionally used at the first sign of the common cold or flu.

Can also be helpful as a preventive measure after suspected exposure to cold or flu. Pinyin Names: Ban Lan Gen, Gang Mei Gen, Ju Hua, Lian Qiao, Jin Yin Hua, Dan Zhu Ye, Ge Gen, Jing Jie. For those with knowledge of Traditional Chinese Medicine, this formula Disperses Wind Heat, Clears heat, and resolves toxins. Combines Yin Qiao San (Wu Jutang, 1798.) and Gan Mao Ling. This formula is a traditional Yin Chiao blend, but here it mixes in the herbs from the Gan Mao Ling fame. This is an extremely effective medicine if taken as soon as symptoms appear. Efficacy will lessen by the third day. Four of the herbs are very powerful antivirals: Isatis, Ilex, Lonicera and Forsythia. Other herbs are symptomatic for aching neck, headache, and nasal congestion. Begin taking a half hour before entering airports, airplanes, terminals, or crowded public facilities. Yin Chiao Plus is not appropriate once the illness enters the lungs and cough is present. Adding Echinacea at 1 teaspoon of the liquid extract three times in the day will also help. Phyto-Tech™ Yin Chiao Plus contains the following herbs: Botanical Names: Isatis indigota Root, Ilex asprella Root, Chrysanthemum morifolium Flower, Forsythia suspensa Fruit, Lonicera japonica Flower, Lophatherum gracile Herb, Pueraria lobata Root, Schizonepeta tenuifolia Herb, Grain Alcohol, Deionized Water
