Noni

Morinda citrifolia from Hawaii * Liquid and 375 mg Freeze-Dried Capsules enlarge bottle

The noni fruit (Morinda citrifolia) is used extensively throughout Polynesia and has been traditionally used for its health-promoting qualities. It is rich in nutritional enzymes, anthraquinones, polysaccharides, phytonutrients and contains trace amounts of vitamins and minerals that support healthy living. The fruit used in Source Naturals Noni Liquid is harvested semi-ripe, and processed within hours to prevent fermentation; therefore, it contains no methanol or ethanol residues. Source Naturals also supplies freeze-dried Hawaiian Noni capsules.
