Product Q&A

1. What is the heat unit (HU) rating of this product?
   Nature's Way Cayenne Pepper herbal supplement is 40,000 heat units.

2. Does Nature's Way carry any other Cayenne products with different heat unit ratings?
   Yes. Although most of Nature's Way Cayenne products are 40,000 HU, Nature's Way does offer an Extra Hot Cayenne, which is 100,000 HU.

3. If two capsules of 100,000 HU Cayenne are taken does it equal 200,000 HU?
   No, the heat rating will not change with the amount of herb taken.

4. If two capsules of 40,000 HU Cayenne are taken, does it equal 80,000 HU?
   No, the heat rating will not change with the amount of herb taken.

5. Does the Cayenne powder include the seeds?
   Yes.

6. Is Cayenne also known as African Birdseye Pepper?
   No. Cayenne is the only common name listed for the Capsicum annum used in Nature's Way products.

7. Does Nature's Way have a Cayenne product that is not so hot?
   The word “hot” in this context refers to digestive distress and not to heat sensation in the mouth. We do carry a product that is milder to the stomach because of the soothing quality of herbs combined with the Cayenne. This product is called “CapsiCool”.
