For centuries, Eastern civilizations have relied on Huperzine as a broadly useful herbal health aid. It was only recently discovered however, that this rare moss extract has the ability to prevent the breakdown of acetylcholine - a chemical in the brain that plays a substantial role in cognitive clarity and memory function. By combining this extract with a proprietary blend of other natural substances that help protect neuronal tissue and improve blood flow (RoseOx®, Ginko Biloba, L-Glutamine and more), NOW Brain Elevate VCaps may be advantageous for elevating cognitive performance.*
