It doesn't take much to trigger a drop in our immune system response. NOW Total Well-Being™ is light years beyond other "wellness" formulas in that it encompasses a synergistic collaboration of nutrients designed to enhance the three major mechanisms of the immune system. These systems are responsible for fighting foreign substances, remembering those from our past and blocking new ones from entry. Developed in conjunction with Dr. James Balch and certified nutritionists, our patented formula harnesses the power of Vitamin C, Zinc, Echinacea, Olive Leaf, American Ginseng and more to fight free radicals while enhancing our response to stress.*
