Vitamin C 1000 with rose hips

Description
Vitamin C collected from Rose hips, one of the richest whole plant sources of Vitamin C, and carefully screened for purity.

Usage
Vitamin C provides antioxidant protection for many of the body's' important enzyme systems. White blood cells utilize Vitamin C to help produce cytotoxic enzymes which they use to eliminate foreign matter. It also helps strengthen collagen, a major connective protein. Vitamin C also plays an important role in the P450 enzyme detoxification system.*

Recommended Daily Dosage
Take one capsule daily with a meal or water.
