Candida Clear" - 90 Vcaps®

Maintaining a healthy gastrointestinal track requires so much more than just a good diet. Helpful bacteria must be present, our flora levels must be well balanced and our immune system must be responsive. NOW Candida Clear is a unique formula that has been carefully formulated to rid the body of candida albicans, a single-celled fungus that naturally resides in our digestive track. Uneven levels of these bacteria can often lead to the production of excess yeast in both men and women.*
