Description: Phyto-Tech™ American Ginseng 1:3 contains certified organic American Ginseng (Panax quinquefolium), 333 mg/ml. American Ginseng is a classic adaptogen herb with systemic action. It increases resistance to illness and environmental stresses, improving vigor, vitality, and energy.

American Ginseng does not treat disease directly, but strengthens the body's ability to adapt to stress and therefore may help to avoid acute episodes from manifesting when one is dealing with a chronic disease.

American Ginseng is especially helpful during the later stages in life, the effects of years of stress, wear and tear on the body begin to manifest themselves.

Dosage: 20-40 drops, 2-3 times per day It is best used as a long term tonic (1-3 months and longer).

Complimentary Formulas: For the elderly, Phyto-Tech™ Ginkgo Biloba Leaf 1:1.5 works well with American Ginseng, especially if mild depression is a problem.
